

September 7, 2007

To All Shalimar Members and Guests:

We are happy to inform you that Shalimar Country Club has NOT been sold, nor does it look like any possible sale is on the horizon. The Neuheisel family continues to own Shalimar and we will continue to operate as your neighborhood golf course, restaurant and lounge.

We are always here to provide you with a friendly atmosphere along with personalized service and quality meals that you, our long-time loyal guests, deserve at all times. With that in mind, we have recently hired an experienced chef, Kevin Houser, to manage our kitchen operations. You will soon see a menu that reflects a little bit different personality along with some daily features that you are going to love. After overseeding (October 8 through 19), we will institute our Thursday evening All-U-Can-Eat Fish Fry and as always, we are here to provide you with personalized wedding receptions, anniversary parties, retirement parties, office parties and such.

Please let us know how we can improve your experience at Shalimar. In the meantime, we are constantly challenging ourselves to improve our operations. Our Golf Course continues to improve under the watchful eyes of our Greens Superintendent, Ron Carr. Our Golf Shop and golf operations, under the direction of John Gunby, will always be here to serve the public with affordable golf experiences, merchandise, instruction, and innovative programs. You are welcome to join our Shaligusta Golf Club, consisting of fun-loving men and women, that play golf here regularly and whose support we truly treasure. Check out our website at www.shalimarcountryclub.com for more information, weekly specials and rates.

Thank you for your continued loyalty and patronage and we appreciate you sticking with us through the past tumultuous months filled with rumors and innuendos.

Respectfully,

Jane Thomas
Restaurant Manager

Jeanie Gerlach
Food Service Manager

John Gunby, PGA
General Manager